

Introductory Paragraph:

A Message to All Christian Believers of this Third Millennium

We have undertaken a detailed look at the reasons behind why the abuse of children occurred at the hands of priests and ministers who were, in the public's eye, commonly thought to be servants of the Lord God.

The article delves into church structures and history and reveals the root issue that has been disguised and hidden from the public view for two thousand years and implicates nearly every main-stream church in the world today who have fallen under the oppression of a Nicolaitan system .

We quote from God's word to show that the façade of innocence is shattered and that nearly every Christian in the world must re-assess their standing in the Kingdom of God.

This is not a quick flick-through article for the sake of something to read, it is very serious with ramifications that go directly to the Salvation of millions of souls in our current times.

Please take time to read it.
