

Is Your Light Bulb Working

This article is a look at how we might be a witness of our Christian beliefs through our actions in everything we do. From home life to the workplace and onto the sports field the Lord gives us the ability to shine a light in our community through our behaviour.

A little candid and a little humorous it's worth the read. I am sure everyone will take away something from it.

Geoff Rooke